I am doing what I can to reduce my personal contribution to global warming, but I know that the world needs a fair and strong international climate change agreement.

I am calling on governments in:

- Every country to work within the United Nations to ensure that the needs of the world's poorest people are at the heart of a new global climate change deal.
- Rich countries to cut their emissions first, fastest and furthest so that global emissions peak by 2015 and fall at least 80% below 1990 levels by 2050.
- Rich countries to provide the money and technology needed, independent of existing aid commitments, to help vulnerable people in poor countries adapt to changing climates.
- Poor countries to invest in national plans which focus on supporting the most vulnerable communities to adapt to the effects of climate change.
